To the office of the President of the CTSSAR and the CTSSAR Board of Managers:

This report covers the period of June 2023 to February 2024. The Nathan Hale Branch held one branch meeting on October 23, 2023 and will be having its upcoming annual meeting on March 2, 2024.

Hale Branch organized and held an event on June 6, 2023 which commemorated the 268th birthday of Connecticut's State Hero Nathan Hale as well as the 250th anniversary of his graduation from Yale College in 1773. The event was held in New London's Williams Park and remarks were given by compatriot Damien Cregeau and Branch Recording Secretary Dayne Rugh. The event included over 30 guests many of whom were Hale Branch compatriots.

Recording Secretary Dayne Rugh attended the July 2, 2023 Eagle Scout Recognition Ceremony organized by compatriot Tim Wilkins at Redding's Putnam Memorial State Park. Six Eagle Scouts were recognized and Compatriot Rugh presented an Eagle Scout certificate, engraved medal, and an NSSAR Eagle Scout Patch to Eagle Scout, Joshua Kapp.

Hale compatriots including Dayne Rugh, Steve Taylor, Damien Cregeau, Matt Fergione, Marcus Larkin, and others participated in the 250th Anniversary of the Boston Tea Party on December 26, 2023.
