Connecticut SAR - ROTC/JROTC Report for April 25, 2024

Chairmen – David J. Perkins

Committee members/presenters: Ken Roach, Benn Bullock, Kurt Potter & Mark Durfee

JROTC Program

Kick-off Letters for 2024 were mailed out in January to the high schools and responses have been arriving over the past few weeks, with 7 high schools confirming dates/cadets. Expect up to 10 medals to be presented this year.

Enhanced Program

For 2024, Enhanced Program winner: Cadet Tamia Mitchell of Wilby High – Marine JROTC Unit.

Recap of 2023

JROTC High Schools in Connecticut (14): Bethel, Danbury, Crosby, Wilby, Hillhouse, Bloomfield, New London, Naugatuck, Norwalk, Brian McMahon, New Britain, Westhill, Torrington and Windsor.

Presented Bronze JROTC Medal w/Ribbon Bar and Certificate to cadets at the following 8 High Schools: Bethel, Danbury, Naugatuck, Torrington, New Britian, Crosby, Brian McMahon, and New London.

Enhanced Program

For 2023, Enhanced Program winner: Cadet Matthew Guertin of Danbury High AFJROTC

2023 Naval Sea Cadet Corp

Bronze Good Citizenship medal with Ribbon Bar was awarded at 1 of 4 sites across the state:

Barque Eagle Division in Plainville presentation was virtual in June.

Additional 2024 Awards

2024 Naval Sea Cadet Corp

Barque Eagle Division in Plainville has requested an award for June. Which is the Bronze Citizenship Medal with Ribbon Bar.

2024 ROTC Awards

Dayne Rugh presented the SAR Silver ROTC Medal at the UConn Air Force Unit on April 4.

No word from Yale Air Force ROTC for 2024.

Respectfully Submitted,

David J. Perkins
Chairman