Welcome to “the other side of Connecticut”

The Oliver Wolcott Branch #10 of the CTSSAR is pleased to invite our fellow compatriots and their families who plan to attend the 135th NSSAR Congress to “the other side of Connecticut”.

Saturday July 19th, 2025, Woodbury CT.

The town of Woodbury, the Antique Capital of Connecticut, in Litchfield County is just one of our county’s 26 New England towns and villages, which still retains that 18th century look and feel that earned Connecticut the honored title of “The Provisions State” from General Washington.

Litchfield County has over 100 cemeteries that hold the earthly remains of 1,700 plus American Patriots; Men, Women and Children from all walks of life who rose to the call and helped lay the foundation of our great nation.

Please join us during the weekend after Congress in celebrating the life and times of our local Patriots by honoring them with a Grave Marking Ceremony at the South Cemetery on the Main Street of Woodbury, CT. .
Afterwards enjoy the relaxing character that makes Litchfield County and the Litchfield Hills,
the home of fine Vineyards, world class Restaurants,
Picturesque Towns and Friendly Neighbors,
“a rural county of New England, which does America proud.”

The Connecticut Society Sons of the American Revolution
Commemorating the 250th Anniversary of the American Revolution 1775-1783,

The Oliver Wolcott Branch #10 of the CTSSAR is pleased to invite our fellow compatriots and their families who plan to attend the 135th NSSAR Congress to "the other side of Connecticut".

Saturday the 19th of July 2025:

Grave Marking: Woodbury, CT. South Cemetery, 9 am: next to St Paul's Episcopal Church
294 South Main Street

Patriots: 1) Capt. James Judson, Esq.
2) Patriot Isaac Judson Sr. (Patriotic service, provided supplies)
3) Pvt. Nehemiah Judson, Esq.
(these are the Patriot Ancestors of PG John Dodd)

Patriots: 4) Pvt. Reuben Mitchell, Esq.
5) Pvt. Nathan Preston, Esq.

Afterwards spend the day Antiquing in Woodbury
(www.antiqueswoodbury.com