

2025 - 135th NSSAR Congress Medal Set $40.00

The Drape:

The Red, Dark blue and Light blue represent the colors of the Mohegan Tribe.
The two white strips represent the two Nathan Hale Schoolhouses owned by CTSSAR.
The Center Yellow Strip represents the Trumbull War office owned by CTSSAR

The Medal (Front) – Mohegan Tribal Symbol

Four Semicircular Domes:

The blue domes point to each of the sacred four directions. They represent the back of Grandfather Turtle (upon whom the Earth was formed), the dome of the sky and the shape of our wigwam dwellings.

Four Sacred Trees: Stemming from the semicardinal directions, these trees represent the sacred tree of life, which grows from the roots of our ancestors and branches out toward future generations.

13 Dots Around Center Circle: These white dots represent the 13 moons of the year, the 13 sections on the turtle's back and the 13 generations since Uncas.

The Sacred Center Circle: This red circle symbolizes the spiritual life force felt throughout the universe.

The Medal (Back)

The Connecticut state Seal
